PRESIDENT'S REPORT

This September has turned out to be such a lovely month. Not only has the weather been beautiful, but when I am not outside, I have been quilting away.

Karen Kay Buckley's presentation was wonderful. I learned a few new tips that I think will help me while sewing and quilting my borders. I will try her method of using the exam table paper to design borders. Her method of folding the paper into sections seemed to be a simple solution to measuring and making the quilt. I also enjoyed her class "Heard It Through the Grapevine". Karen taught us to make perfectly round grapes and leaves with crisp edges. My favorite lesson was making the butterflies body fluffy by fraying the fabric on sandpaper. I still have a lot of practicing to do to make my applique turn out better.

October's workshop is making Christmas stockings for donation. I hope this year will be as successful as last in all the stockings that were donated.

See you in October,
Katie

VICE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

We had a great time at Karen Kay Buckley's lecture and classes. Thanks to Judy and Sharon for booking her so far in advance. And special thanks to Donna for acting as tour guide, chauffeur, and entertainment coordinator! We have looked at other potential national teachers but may need to wait until after our next quilt show as the Auction proceeds replenish our teaching fund. We will keep you posted.

In the meantime, we have programs and workshops set up for the remaining 2014-2015 membership year. Stephanie has offered to create a calendar as part of our newsletter so watch that space to dates and times. We will have sign-up sheets at each meeting for the full year's workshops so you will have plenty of lead time to mark your calendars. We are asking for payment prior to the workshops to better budget our resources.

October 2014

Our October program covers Quilters Math & Design tips-primarily a review and reference list of how to make something in your own size if the pattern doesn't fit. This will also help with defining your June 2015 challenge design of something architectural. Pat Tracy will have more details about the challenge.

February 18:	10 am - 2 pm
March 18:	10 am - 2 pm
April 15:	10 am - 2 pm
May 20:	Taylor Theater room not available-do we want to meet in house?
June 17:	11 am - 3 pm (preschool has a breakfast until 10:30)

Finally, the Stocking Workshop on Saturday, October 18th (9 am - 3 pm) is free of charge to members and friends. We have quite a stash of fabric already set aside but additional Christmas themed fabric is always welcome. We are looking forward to seeing everyone in September as we start our new programs and workshops!

Thanks,

Sandy & Nancy

SECRETARY'S REPORT

The monthly meeting of the Kenan Quilters' Guild began at 7 PM with the lecture, To Border Or Not To Border-That Is The Question, presented by national teacher, Karen Kay Buckley. The program was followed by a break with refreshments and a brief business meeting.

The business meeting was called to order at 8:45 PM. The following topics were covered:

AARON MOSELL QUILT & PUBLIC QUILTING BEE

The top is done! We reworked our sequence a bit to accommodate the drawings of local buildings and placement of the family leaves. So we just need to assemble the back and deliver the quilt to Tara Thom around October 1st. Thanks to all who have helped us get this far.

Budget-Gail Schweigert, Treasurer, advised everyone of a correction to the proposed budget as it appeared in the September newsletter. A motion to accept the budget, as corrected, was made by Nancy Smith and seconded by Sue McKenna. The vote was taken and the budget was passed.

Alice Donaldson has offered to pursue next steps with the principal at North Park so we will have an idea of how the quilt will circulate once it is finished.

Whimsical Sculpture Garden-A volunteer is needed for refreshments. Linda Davis volunteered.

Nancy

Missoula Children's Theater-A volunteer is needed for help ushering and with refreshments. Jan Jordan volunteered.

ADDITIONAL CALENDAR ITEMS-CIRCLE MEETINGS

We are continuing the Wednesday Circles from October through June with a few time changes. We can address July and August closer to year-end. These are open sewing, knitting, gabbing events (anything you want to work on) in the Taylor Theater Meeting Room. Hope to see you there.

Kenan Arts Council-Volunteers are needed to fill in as subs to sit in the house on weekends. Pat Tracy will have a sign-up sheet at the next meeting.

October 15:	10 am - 2 pm
November 19:	10 am - 2 pm
December 17:	11 am - 3 pm (preschool has a breakfast until 10:30)
January 14:	10 am - 2 pm

Workshops-Nancy Smith announced that sign-up sheets for upcoming workshops will be available at next month's meeting.

Challenge-Pat Tracy announced that the next challenge subject matter will be architecture. More info to come.

Note: I have added this Calendar Feature to try & make it easier for everyone to know what is going on. I am only listing dates, times and events. The co-vice-presidents will give you the details regarding the programs & workshops in their monthly columns. As the events occur they will drop off the list. This way you won't have to go back & refer to an old newsletter to find out what is going on. I hope you find this helpful.

JODY SOSSONG UPDATE

Nancy asked me to include the following in the newsletter: Jody has started hospice care at home. Her husband wanted us to know. Perhaps we can share info with the guild in case anyone wants to send cards. Address is: 5409 Stone Road, Lockport.

Nancy

Additional note: In church this morning they announced that Jody passed away. I checked the US&J website for verification & it said she passed away on Sept. 27th.
